GENERAL INFORMATION - APPLICATION FOR A SANITIZER LICENSE

“No person shall sell any renovated bedding or secondhand bedding in this State unless it is sanitized in accordance with the North Carolina Bedding Law and Regulations.” [GS 106-65.96].

This Act applies to any reworked or remade or secondhand bedding. A person who sanitizes bedding and or materials for bedding shall attach a yellow tag containing information required by Rule and maintain records of the kind of material(s) and bedding sanitized. These records are subject to inspection by the NCDA&CS.

To obtain a license, an applicant shall submit a completed application pursuant to the NC Bedding Law and Regulations, with information pertaining to the name(s) and physical location of the sanitizing facility, signatures of a company official, original sample of law tag, and appropriate fees.

The initial licensing fee of $720.00 is prorated quarterly and is based upon the business start date in North Carolina.

The Social Security Number (SSN) and Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) disclosure if sole proprietorship or partnership, is mandatory. North Carolina General Statute 110 Child Welfare Section 142.1 revocation, and issuance of occupational, professional, or business licenses of obligors who are delinquent in court-ordered child support authorizes collection of your SSN and FEIN. Your SSN or FEIN information will be used for this purpose.
